"The Ottawa Spotlight"

(By Wilfrid Eggleston)

Ottawa, May 11th— The debate on the budget is usually one of the full dress discussions of the year. This session there was a disposition to cut it short for several reasons, and it very nearly died a natural death the very first evening. However, Social Credit and Conservative members kept it going, and C.C.F. members later moved a "want of confidence" motion which prolonged it a couple of days more. The budget debate usually centres around fiscal policy; and we have already heard a good deal about that on the trade agreement. Another reason why the government is not anxious to prolong the session with a budget debate is that there is still a very heavy program of legislation.

Last week Mr Mackenzie King outlined the bills still to come. They include a resolution to amendment the B. N. A. act so as to create a Joint Council; legislation arising out of the elections and franchise committee, the pensions committee, the radio committee, the wheat committee and possibly the railways and shipping committee; amendments to the criminal code, including the cancellation of the famous Section 98 dealing with free speech and assembly; amendment to the customs act. Also, as possibilities, there are amendments to the Combines Act, the Post Office Act, the Relief Act, the Patent Medicines Acct, the Dry Dock Subsidies Act, the Carriage of Goods by Water Act, and a bill respecting marketing.

A Heavy List

Even this list does not quite exhaubt the list, the premier saying that he wished to reserve the right to introduce one or two other measures should it be found necesary. Unless the House makes better time than it has so far the legislators will be sitting here until July first.

There has been some agitation to revive the cheese bonus. Farmers in Ontario and Quebec are quite keen about it, and the government members for these provinces held a meeting to discuss the matter. One difficulty is that we are now exporting quite large quantities of cheese to the United States, under the trade agreement, and they might not take kindly on that side to a bonus here, the resulting product coming then within the category of dumped exports. Another difficulty is that if the cheese farmers get a bonus, producers of a score of other commodities will want similar treatment, and taxes will go up some more. The Ontario-Quebec members accepted the decision with a pretty good grace, but they did say—some of them—that wheat bonuses ought also to be a thing of the past; that what is sauce for the goose ought to be sauce for teh male bird also.

Canada has sold her fleet of Merchant vessels, ten in all, for a figure in the neighborhood of $420,000. This does not apply to the West Indies boats, which will be continued in the usual service. The government merchant marine was an unfortunate war and post war episode which cost the taxpayers of this country over a hundred million dollars in original costs and subsequent operating deficits.

(Further Cut on Relief)

Parliament voted $26,000,000 during the week for 'grants in aid' to the provinces for direct relief. As they are paying $2,606,000 a month in the early stages of the fiscal year, it is evident that they are anticipating further cuts, which the provinces, it goes without saying, won't like. But summer and autumn costs are usually lighter, and the government is still banking on a substantial upturn in business. There are still thousands of 'drought-area' families on the direct relief list, and good harvest in that part of the west would remove most of them from the rolls almost overnight.

The Senate turned down a bill moved by Senator J. J. Hughes which would have made it illegal for the guilty party in any divorce case to remarry anyone except his former spouse.

The Hudson Bay route once again gets the benefit of reduced insurance rates, those for the coming season being about 25 per cent lower than last year's. The season is also extended eight days, and now lasts, without surcharge of premum, from August 5th to October 10th. With additional premium the route may be used until October 15th.

Radio, Agricultural, and railway committees were sitting fairly steadily during the week.

INDUCTION SERVICE

The Service of Inducting Rev. C. W. Wiley into the pastorate of St. Michael's Church Thursday, May 7th was very impressive. Rev. Archdeacon Tims of Calgary conducted the special Induction Service, reading the vows and receiving the responses Mr Arthur Lambert presented Mr Wiley with the keys of the church.

The address was given by the Rev. Dean Rogg, based on the words, We are co-workers with God. The Dean divided his discourse into four parts, Worship, interest, prayer and the Sacrament. He stated that The Sacrament of Communion was the one rule, which Our Lord Himself had instituted. That people should come to church to give more than to get; that a consecrated interest in the work of the church was necessary on the part of the people in order to support both financially and sympathetically their minister and thus leave him free to develop the Spiritual contact and influence necessary to a fruitful service in God's kingdom here on earth, and that prayer is the means of keeping attuned to the will of God.

Following the Service a reception was held at the home of Mr G. H. atrick, attended by about 30 members and friends.

J. R. MURRAY AND WHEAT

The reduction in the visible supply of wheat has at last passed a notable sign post on the road to normalcy. It is now well below the 200 million bushel mark, and some 25 million bushels below the figures of a year ago. As we have observed before, it appears that the wheat can be sold.

Mr J. R. Murray is proving the wisdom shown in his appointment as Chairman of the Dominion Wheat Board.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET

::0::

About 85 guests, mothers and daughters sat down to a delicious banquet in the basement of the United Church Wednesday, May 6th. Streamers of blue and yellow were strung from corner to corner, and around the pillars. The same color effect was carried out in the decorating of the tables.

The special guests of the evening were Miss Jean Evely, Miss Dora Follet and Mrs Love of Calgary, Rev. C. W. and Mrs Wiley and Rev. V. M. Gilbert.

The Banquet was arranged by the C. G. I. T. girls and their Leaders Miss F. Garrett and Miss Helen Shrimpton.

Helen French, President of the C. G. I. T. presided in a very capable manner.

Miss Dora Follet of Calgary vivaciously led in community singing.

Toasts and responses, aptly phrased were proposed to the visitors by Frances Jones, Mrs Bower replying, and to our mothers, by Diana Young, with response by Mrs French.

Marion Gilbert gave a brief talk on the work and purpose of the C. G. I. T.

DRAMATIC RECITAL MOST ENTERTAINING

There are artists and artists. Those attending Miss Lockerbie's recital discovered artistry extraordinary. In the playing of Miss Betty Buckley one heard piano playing de luxe and as Mr Jack Love sang for us, we felt conscious of the splendid future for this young man. Strathmore has more talent than is often found in small towns, and in short notice a concert of first rank can be arranged. It was possibly for this very reason, our visitors were so well received and highly appreciated.

Mr Love was suffering from a slight cold, but in his encore "Galloping" he mastered any defect from this and all of his following numbers were most enthusiastically received.

As a special number Mr Love sang "Danny Boy" a favorite with all.

Miss Buckley presided at the piano throughout. In her accompanying for Mr Love her work was excellent. In her accompanying Miss Lockerbie's numbers one felt her mastery of the various moods. In her solo the Spanish dance and encores, her technique and interpretation were exceptionally good.

From the standpoint of dramatics Miss Lockerbie covered the field thoroughly, and showed herself equally proficient in each area.

Her opening and closing numbers, treated the serious side of life, and in the latter, "The Valiant" her ability to represent each of the four characters was equally good. The humorous side was not overlooked as we found in "I've got a Pain in my Sawdust," Her sympathy with childhood was illustrated in the "Child readed Man" and "The Bath Hour". Love found a modern setting in "When Love and Duty Meet" and its compliment in Riley's "That Old Sweetheart of Mine." She struck a note, too often omitted, that the biographical man is ever greater than his art—the artist greater than his production. Miss Lockerbie's biographical notes with which she introduced many of her numbers were both pleasing and enlightening.

Perhaps it was because her personal knowledge of Pauline Johnson that made her rendering of the poems, The Song My Paddle Sings, and The Legend of Qu'Appelle Valley, so effective. In the subdued applause, one was reminded of the success of Lincoln's speech at Gettysburg.

Her costume number "A Midnight Fantasy" revealed a beautiful sympathy with both the modern girl and her ancestors. To return once more to the last number in "The Valiant", Miss Lockerbie recognized that her art was more than entertainment. As she portrayed the soul of one condemned to the gallows, we saw the science of teaching at its best. We can assure each of the artists a very warm welcome on any future visit to Strathmore. WEDDINGS

VAN WEZEL - DOWLING

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Sacred Heart Church, Strathmore, Thursday morning at ten o'clock when Kathleen Isabell, only daughter of Mr and Mrs T. J. Dowling of Vancouver became the bride of Adrian Johnny, oldest son of Mr and Mrs H. Van Wezel of Strathmore. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Cosman, parish priest.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white satin, cut on princess lines. Her net embroidered veil was caught with orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of roses centred with three Calla Lillies and was very lovely.

The bride was attended by Miss Dina Van Wezel, sister of the groom. She wore a dress of pink satin with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was attended by his brother Mr. Tony Van Wezel. Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents.

The bride's table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake. The room was daintily decorated in pink and white with streamers down the centre.

Only the immediate friends of the family were present. The bride received many lovely gifts. The Misses Mary and Alice Hallinger, friends of the family waited at the table, while Mrs A. Kleiner served in the kitchen.

After the reception Mr and Mrs Johnny Van Wezel accompanied by Miss Dina and Mr Tony Van Wezel motored to Calgary, where they had their photos taken.

After a short honeymoon Mr and Mrs Van Wezel will reside on their farm at Strathmore.

PATRICK - READ

A wedding of much interest to a large number of friends took place in Ottawa on the marriage of Mr. Gilbert H. Patrick of Strathmore to Miss Phoebe Read, daughter of the late Canon and Mrs Read of Ottawa was solemnized in St. Bartholomew's Church, Ottawa Thursday, May 14th. Col. Beresford Topp acted as groomsman for Mr. Patrick. Rt. Rev. L. Ralph Sherman, Bishop of Calgary and Mrs Sherman were guests at the wedding.

Mr and Mrs Patrick will return to their home in Strathmore shortly.

An interesting talk on the alluring side of camp life was given by Miss Follet, who urged the girls, as many as possible can to go and benefit by 10 days of new and joyful experience.

Miss Jean Evely developed a talk full of inspiration and beneficial admonition, from the four fold form of the Group creed.

Rev. Gilbert chose as the topic of a very thoughtful address "The Church —the Corner Stone of a New World". The address contained many suggestions, which put into practice would make for a better world. The speaker also pointed out many fallacies in the present system.

The ever impressive candle lighting ceremony followed. This very plainly indicates the effect and power of concerted action or co-operation One little act, or one small bit of influence may be feeble, but multiplied many times its light and influence reaches to the bounds of the earth.

Miss Garrett thanked especially the visitors for their contribution to the success of the evening.

Taps was sung and another pleasant gathering passed into memory's storehouse.

If I had all the mothers I ever saw to choose from, I would have chosen you my mother.— Carlyle.

In after life you may have friends, but never will you again have the inexpressible love and gentleness lavished upon you which a mother bestows.— Macaulay.

My mother was an angel on earth She has been a spirit from above watched over me for good. Without her the world feels so like a solitude. —John Quincy Adams.

It is to my mother that I owe everything. If I did not perish long ago in sin and misery, it is because of the long and faithful years in which she pleaded with me. What comparison is there be tween the honour I paid her and her slavery for me- — St. Augustine.

You have been the best mother- I believe the best woman in the world. I thank you for your indulgence to me, and I beg forgiveness for all I have done ill, and for all I omitted to do well. —Dr. Johnston.

What would I not give to call my dear mother back to earth for a single day, to ask her pardon on my knees for all those acts by which I grieved her gentle spirit. —Charles Lamb.

All I am, all that I hope to be, I owe to my angel mother blessings on her memory! I remember my mother's prayers. They have always followed me. They have clung to me all my life. —Abraham Lincoln.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blocks up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons get into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they speed the bile flow freely. They do the work of calomel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 26c.

Miss Irene Cramer spent last week end at the home of Mr and Mrs W H. Hartell.

We wonder how the two horses that Misses Violet Hartell and Jean nette Cramer rode to Strathmore Saturday got home that night. At least we know the girls didn't help get them there.

ROCKYFORD

On Tuesday evening May 6th the coommunity turned out in large numbers when a social evening was given in honor of Mr and Mrs F. Stinn who were celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. To the strains of the Wedding March from Lohengrin the couple walked down an aisle which was formed by several small girls in costume, holding streamers to mark the way ,which was strewn with blossoms by the three small girls. Mrs Stinn was presented with a silver basket filled with beautiful roses. A very fine program was given by friends which included complimentary speeches from some of the old timers. Supper was served after which the younger people spent the time in dancing.

The Girl Guides committee held its regular meeting last week. The evening was spent in discussing a suitable place for the girls to go to camp. It was left undecided until Miss M. Stone who was taken ill suddenly last week and was rushed to the hospital is able to be back with us again.

Ed. Ross who has been suffering with a bad knee is able to be around again by the use of crutches. It was found that Ed has a broken bone in his knee and will have it in a cast for six weeks. We hope that now the Doctor has located the trouble he will soon be alright.

Mr and Mrs Rudd spent a day in the city last week.

We are pleased to have Mrs T. Birt back in our midst after her five weeks stay in the hospital. It will be some time yet before Mrs Birt will have the full use of her leg.

We are sorry to hear that Jack Wilson is confined to his bed with rheumatism. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

FLAX

Flax is a coarse grain which has maintained a good price level, and for which there is a splendid demand. Canada's crop in 1933 amounted to only 600,000 bushels; in 1934 to about 900,000 bushels, and in 1935 to about 1,500,000 bushels. Canadian domestic requirements of flax are almost 3,000,000 bushels, and as a result of the small crops, continued importations have had to be made by Canadian Linseed Oil crushers for several years past.

Experiments made by the demonstration farms throughout the western provinces have proven clearly that on summerfallow or clean land, providing clean seed is used, yields as high as 18 to 20 bushels per acre on flax can be obtained. A ready market exists for from 12 to 15 million bushels of Canadian flax in the United States, and the Canadian crop could safely be increased to 20,000,000 bushels per annum with a certainty of a ready market.

Many Albertans are not aware of the fact that flax is crushed at a Linseed Oil plant in the city of Medicine Hat, and that a market exists there for almost 500,000 bushels of flax per annum. The by-products of this manufacturing plant provides one of the finest cattle foods known to livestock feeders.
